CORPORATE OFFICE

Ever since I hosted my friends family in kerala for a five day long package my interest for entrepreneurship bloomed, and through Paradise Holidays, it blossomed. It took me seven years to move back as a full time enterpreneur to take over the leadership of Raveendra hospitality. Upholding the values that my father have set for the company I am dedicated to serve my customers and my society. Now after all these years and with more yet to come, I realize that life is easy when you focus on the way of life.
